

I think the entire building should congratulate Sandy for her foresight to bring a long awaited project to a successful end. The committee should also be congratulated on the choice of furniture and accessories. I followed the project from demolition to end result and all the subcontractors as well as the interior designer performed very well. We can now say the Promenade (inside and outside) brings the building to the 21st century and makes our building look very classy.

David Sztain